Aberystwyth

Teithiau cerdded

Y Borth i Aberystwyth (9.5km / 6 milltir)
Dyma ddarn diddorol a heriol o'r Arfordir Treftadaeth ac mae angen cryn dipyn o ddringo mewn manau. Wrth gerdded o orsaf i orsaf, gallwch ddod nôl ar y trên os byddwch wedi blino.

Aberystwyth i Lanrhystud (17km / 10.5 milltir)
Gan nad oes pentrefi ar y ffordd a dim ond ychydig o lwybrau eraill sy'n ymuno, ychydig o bobl sy'n cerdded ar y rhan hon o Lwybr Arfordir Ceredigion. Er ei fod yn heriol, mae'r llwybr yn rhoi cryn foddhad.

Aberaeron i'r Cei Newydd (10km / 6.25 milltir)
Mae'r llwybr yma, rhwng dau o brif drefi arfordirol Ceredigion, yn cynnig golygfeydd ardderchog o bennau'r clogwyni. Mae llawer o bobl yn dweud mai Aberaeron yw un o'r trefi harddaf yng Nghymru gyda'i sgwâr o adeiladau gwych sydd yn null cyfnod y Rhaglywiaeth. Y traeth yw'r hoff lwybr drwy Gei Newydd, ond efallai bydd rhaid defnyddio'r heol pan mae'r llanw'n uchel.

Cwmttydu i Langrannog (7.5km / 4.75 milltir)
Yn ôl rhai, dyma'r rhan fwyaf trawiadol o Lwybr Arfordir Ceredigion. Mae'n rhan o'r Arfordir Treftadaeth ac yn cynnwys yr ynys enwog Ynys Lochtyn. Ar draeth hyfryd Llangrannog gallwch weld Carreg Bica - craig a oedd ar un adeg, yn ôl yr hanes, yn un o ddannedd cawr.

Aberporth (1km / 0.6 milltir naill ffordd)
Darn o'r llwybr sydd wedi'i ddynodi'n bwrpasol ar gyfer pobl mewn cadeiriau olwyn. Mae'n rhedeg ar hyd myl ddwyreiniol Bae Aberporth lle mae golygfeydd ardderchog o arfordir Ceredigion o'r clogwyni. Mae Aberporth hefyd yn lle da i weld dolffiniaid.

Aberporth i Mwnt (8km / 5 milltir)
Rhan anghysbell o Lwybr yr Arfordir yw hon, sy'n rhedeg ar hyd brigau clogwyni a llethrau arfordirol, ychydig yn is nag ymylon tir amaethyddol. Mae llonyddwch yr ardal anghysbell yma'n gwneud i rywun deimlo bod rhuthr bywyd yn bell, bell i ffwrdd.

Suggested walks

Borth to Aberystwyth (9.5km / 6 miles)
This is an interesting and challenging section of Heritage Coast with several big climbs. The walk links up the railway stations so that you can let the train take the strain on your return leg.

Aberystwyth to Lanrhystud (17km / 10.5 miles)
With no settlements between these locations and with few feeder paths, this is one of the least walked sections of the Ceredigion Coast Path. Despite its challenges, it is rewarding.

Aberaeron to New Quay (10km / 6.25 miles)
This walk, between two of Ceredigion's main coastal towns, offers spectacular cliff top views. Aberaeron is regarded as one of the most attractive towns in Wales with a square of elegant Regency-style buildings. At New Quay, the preferred route is along the beach, but at high tide you may have to follow the road.

Cwmttydu to Llangrannog (7.5km / 4.75 miles)
Arguably the most spectacular part of the Ceredigion Coast Path, this section is Heritage Coast and includes the iconic Ynys Lochtyn. Llangrannog's lovely beach is home to Carreg Bica - a rock which, legend has it, used to be a giant's tooth.

Aberporth (1km / 0.6 miles each way)
A section of path specifically designed for wheelchairs along the eastern end of Aberporth Bay with spectacular cliff top views of the Ceredigion coastline. Aberporth is also a great place for dolphin spotting.

Aberporth to Mwnt (8km / 5 miles)
A remote section of Coast Path positioned along the tops of cliffs and coastal slopes and below the fringe of agricultural land. With secret coves and caves, it is one of the best sections for spotting dolphins and seals. The tranquility and isolation of this section induces a feeling of separation from the pace of modern life.
